

ASHLEY AND CAROL COLEMAN

GLEN HOUGHTON, FOUNDATION STUD.

MR ASHLEY COLEMAN is the son of one of the founding members of the Droughtmaster Breed. Ashley has been involved in the cattle industry all his life. From the age of 12 Ashley had an active role in the Glen Houghton Stud firstly doing the recording of the stock and subsequently building the stud that had the largest number of registered stock in Queensland at one time. Ashley & Carol Coleman for several years had their own sale in Charters Towers comprising 100 bulls, as well as selling 50-60 bulls privately each year. As well as having been senior Vice President of the Society and a Director for many years Ashley has had a distinguished career as a Stud Stock Judge. Some of the venues that Ashley has officiated at include Townsville (4), Charters Towers (4), Emerald, Clermont, Rockhampton (2), Gatton, Ingham, Ayr as well as the National Droughtmaster Show in Nanango and the Brisbane Royal on two occasions. His judging included Tropical, British & European Breeds as well as small breeds and also steer & fat classes at numerous venues throughout Queensland and Interstate.

Extract from Droughtmaster, Putting the 'D' in AAA by John Boydell, 2001.