LIFE MEMBERSHIP POLICY

GUIDELINES FOR BOARD CONSIDERATION

Life Membership is recognised by the DSBS as the highest recognition awarded to a member in acknowledgement of exceptional service and contribution; it should retain its prestige and not be awarded easily. It should also be recognised that life membership does not have to be awarded each year.

Decision Making Process

Life Membership should not be considered as a competitive matter, and nominees must be considered individually and on their personal attributes and achievements and not in comparison to others. While it is inevitable comparisons will be made with past recipients, direct comparisons should not be made.

Granting Life Membership is a balancing exercise. Criteria are provided as guidance, but it is the overall contribution of the nominee that must be evaluated. There is necessarily some subjectivity in the granting of life membership and evaluation of the nominee's strengths against the various criteria will vary.

To assist with the nomination, some or all the following criteria should be considered.

- For any of the relevant criteria the nominee should have demonstrated an exceptional contribution beyond the ordinary for an extended period of time, which has a measurable benefit to the Society and membership.
- Has the nominee represented the Society or breed with distinction, such as with external bodies, or at events?
- Has the nominee demonstrated an attitude and demeanour that reflects dedication to the values of the Society?
- Has the nominee provided valued leadership around the Society and is considered a role model?

In the event the nominee is serving on the Board at the time of nomination, that person must be removed from any deliberation on the nomination.

A simple majority of a quorum of the Board is sufficient for the nomination to be pursued. If appropriate, at this time the Board shall appoint an individual or subcommittee to further research the nomination and report back to the Board.

In the event the individual or sub-committee believes the nomination is worthy of life membership a simple majority of a quorum of the Board is sufficient for the nomination to be approved and Life Membership to be conferred on the individual.

Life Membership must be recorded in the DMSB official records.

The granting of life membership and the recipient's service to the DSBS should be publicised in the DSBS media and any other communication tool considered appropriate.
