

COL AND JOYCE BLANCKENSEE

PINE VALLEY, STUD NO. 51.

Two National Female Sale stalwarts were given the honours of cutting the delicious 40th Anniversary cake at the Meet & Greet. Col Blanckensee (left) was one of the original vendors at the inaugural sale while Stan Tompkins (right) is the longest serving member on the sale committee having clocked up 35 years this year. National Female Sale 2021

COL AND JOYCE BLANCKENSEE, Pine Valley joined Droughtmaster in the early 70's. Col was a board member from 1974 - 1991 and a member of the Business Management Committee for seven years. The Blanckensee's were regular supporters of the annual National Female Sale from its inception.

The 40th annual Droughtmaster National Female Sale was opened by Col Blanckensee, one of the original vendors of the National Female Sale.

