

FRED GALLO AND MARIO GALLO

WYLANDRA, STUD NO. 254.

IN 1977 ALFRED (FRED) GALLO and his brother Mario founded Wylandra Holdings with just 22 cows from the Glenrae Stud.

Eight years later in 1985, as relative newcomers, they topped the national sales at Rockhampton with an average of $5600 a head for 10 bulls.

At the time $5600 was a significant amount of money for one bull let alone as an average price for 10. That average across that number of bulls in 1985 was unheard of.

Fred became passionate about the stud, and later the Wylandra Stud topped the Rockhampton national sales for females three years running and had the Rockhampton Beef Expo junior champion and Brisbane Ekka reserve champion at the same time.
